A Call to Artists

The Art Connection is encouraging new and continuing art collectors by playing bingo for original fine artwork. Jurors will select 12 works of art to be included in an Art Bingo fundraising event on March 24th. The night of the event, each bingo game will be played for a specific piece of artwork, and the winning collectors will take work home that night! Artwork donations support the work of The Art Connection... stimulating dialogue, creativity, learning, and healing by placing original artwork in social service agencies in the Greater Boston area.

About The Art Connection

The Art Connection enriches and empowers under-served communities by expanding access to original works of art. We facilitate the choice of art, from artists and other donors, for those who may not have the opportunity to experience the transformative possibilities of art in their lives. In our 16 years of bringing art to life, we have celebrated the placement over 5,200 original works of art in over 300 agencies, by over 330 art donors.

Jurors

Michele Cohen, Ph.D., is a public art consultant, independent scholar, and curator, who has written on American art, women artists, contemporary art and public art. The founding Director of New York City's Public Art for Public Schools program (1989-2009), she recently authored the first history of New York City public school art and architecture, Public Art for Public Schools (The Monacelli Press, 2009). Before launching Michele Cohen Art, she was an Assistant Professor of Arts Administration and Director of the Trustman Gallery at Simmons College.

Steven Zevitas is the President and Publisher of the New American Paintings- a juried exhibition in print, which he founded in order to inform art collectors about emerging artists. Steven Zevitas Gallery was founded in 2003 in Boston's South End. The gallery exhibits and represents artists from throughout the United States and has been participating in art fairs including Aqua Art Fair Miami in 2007 and 2008; the Next Art Fair Chicago in 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011; and the Volta NY Art Fair in 2010 and 2011.
