

The Fay Slover Fund at The Boston Foundation Application Guidelines

The Fay Slover Fund has been established at The Boston Foundation to support start-up or program grants to organizations or programs within existing organizations with a mission to increase access to art in underserved communities. The Art Connection's Expansion Committee serves as the fund advisor.

We have seen the following models achieve their goal of increasing access to art in their communities:

- Independent nonprofit organizations, grown from the ground up
- Programs within existing community arts organizations
- Programs within colleges/universities
- Collaborative efforts

The Art Connection invites you to explore our website www.theartconnection.org, familiarize yourself with our expansion materials, and to submit a proposal for your project following these new guidelines closely.

Eligibility of Recipients

- Organizations or programs working to create, sustain, or grow an art donation program
- Have a board of directors and a 501(c) (3) status*
- Located anywhere outside of the Greater Boston Area

NEW Fay Slover Fund Guidelines

- Applications are reviewed twice annually
- Deadlines for submission are March 1 and Nov 1
- The funding period is for 12 months
- Grantees may reapply annually
- Applicants not funded must wait a year before reapplying
- Funding should be used for core program activities, which could include staffing, technical assistance, or capacity building
- Awards to expansion sites will be granted for amounts of up to $25,000 in a given year
- From 2016 forward, the total funding cap per applicant will be $75,000 (for instance, three years of funding at $25,000 or smaller grants for a longer period)
- Awards will be based on demonstrated need and percentage of overall budget size

Fay Slover Fund Grant Priorities

Funding amounts will be awarded based on key indicators of success:

- A demonstrated ability to acquire significant support from sources other than the Fay Slover Fund at The Boston Foundation
- Sustainability beyond our funding period
- Previous grantees who have demonstrated progress appropriate to the amount of funding they have received in past years

- Previous grantees who have demonstrated decreasing reliance on FSF funding, as evidenced by grant representing a smaller percentage of budget and/or requesting less than the largest grant size

Fay Slover Fund Recipient Requirements

- Completion of reports in required format at 6 and 12 months, including updates on actual financials (according to provided program budget form)
- Acknowledgment of The Art Connection and The Fay Slover Fund at The Boston Foundation on project-related web and print materials
